Thursday, November 1st
Native Heritage Month Flag Raising Ceremony
12:00 pm University Mall located in front of Fogler Library

Wednesday, November 7
Native American crafts and artistry. Moccasin making class
6:00-7:00 pm in COE Room located on the 2nd Floor Memorial Student Union

Wednesday, November 14th
Lunch and Learn; Indigenous People's Day
Please join us as we welcome Maulian Dana former Tribal Ambassador Penobscot Nation to discuss Indigenous People's Day across our state and country as well as the continued effort to eliminate Native Mascots & Costumes from pop culture and society.
12:00 - 1:00 pm in Multicultural Center located 3rd Floor Memorial Student Union

Native American Crafts & Artistry Class.
Beading class hosted by American Indian Student Association
6:00-7:00 pm in Multicultural Center located 3rd Floor Memorial Student Union

Thursday, November 15th
Multicultural Thanksgiving
Special guest speakers include John Bear Wabanaki Center and Dylan Smith President American Indian Student Organization who will join us to discuss the significance of this day for Native Americans & Indigenous Communities.
5:00 pm - 7:00 pm North Pod located on the 2nd Floor Memorial Student Union

Geo Neptune
Learn about Two-Spirits and the persistent barriers that affect minority gender-nonconformists from educator Passamaquoddy-activist, and master basket maker, Geo Neptune sponsored by Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies.
7:00-8:30 pm 120 Little Hall

Friday, November 16th
"Motherland and Wabanaki Women"
A public presentation by Miigam'agan (Mi'kmaq) who will discuss the Wabanaki as matriculture societies and their relationship to the motherland.
1:00 - 2:00 pm Arthur St. John Hill Auditorium, 165 Barrows Hall

Monday, November 19th
"Decolonizing Our Hearts and Minds"
Presented by Sherri Mitchell (Penobscot). Mitchell will speak on issues of indigenous rights, environmental justice, and spiritual change.
1:00 - 2:00 pm Bangor Room located on the 2nd floor Memorial Student Union

Wednesday, November 28th
Lunch & Learn
Come and support our Native students, staff, & faculty as we celebrate Native American Heritage Month and the significance of this important month with those who identify as Natives.
12:00 - 1:00 pm in Multicultural Center located 3rd Floor Memorial Student Union

Friday, November 30.
American Indian Student Organization Social
Come meet our Native student group and enjoy Native music and food. Where:
1:00 - 2:00 pm Bangor Room located on the 2nd floor Memorial Student Union

Native American Heritage Month is presented by the University of Maine’s Wabanaki Center, Office of Multicultural Student Life in collaboration with American Indian Student Organization and is supported in part by the Cultural Affairs/Distinguished Lecture Series Fund.

For more information & a full description of each event please visit us at https://umaine.edu/multicultural/