David L. Smith “On Inhumanity”

14 October 2020

7:00 p.m. • ZOOM

Join us on October 14th for a public presentation by David L. Smith (University of New England) on his new book, On Inhumanity: Dehumanization and How to Resist It (Oxford, 2020). Recent praise for the book: “This brilliant and powerful book is a philosophically sophisticated and prophetically courageous treatment of dehumanization, especially in regard to race. It is timely and needful in our monstrous times! Don’t miss it!” -- Cornel West, Professor of the Practice of Public Philosophy, Harvard University. “This book is firm but gentle, wise but accessible. Its reflections on our worst habits of politics are phrased in such a way that they allow us to see what better habits might be.” -- Timothy Snyder, Richard C. Levin Professor of History, Yale University, author of On Tyranny: Twenty Lessons from the Twentieth Century.
